CHINA

China, a nation in East Asia, is the world's most populous country with 1.4 Billion people.

Its vast landscape encompasses grassland, desert, mountain ranges, lakes, rivers and 14,500km of coastline.

Beijing, the capital, mixes modern architecture with historic sites including sprawling Tiananmen Square. Its largest city, Shanghai, is a skyscraper-studded global financial center.

The iconic Great Wall of China fortification runs east-west across the country's north.

GUANGZHOU

Guangzhou is a sprawling port city northwest of Hong Kong on the Pearl River.

Considered the birthplace of dim sum, it has a thriving food scene.

Its markets specialize in wares ranging from eyeglasses to electronics.

The sandbar Shamian Island, across a canal from Guangzhou, has leafy streets and grand mansions that are a legacy from its time as a foreign concession.

FOSHAN

Foshan is located in the northern part of the Pearl River, 20 kilometers (12 miles) from Guangzhou, Guangdong Province.

The city is made up of five districts: Chancheng, Shunde, San-shui, Nanhai and Gaoming Districts.

The government seat is located in Chancheng District.

It is a vital part of an active economic zone comprising of Guangzhou in the east, and Hong Kong and Macau in the south.
